

THE LARGEST & CHEAPEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD.
One Dollar per annum.
When subscribed for in Clubs of ten or more.
COMMENCEMENT OF A NEW YEAR, ALEXANDER'S WEEKLY
MESSENGER.

Will be materially improved in its Typographical appearance at the beginning of the next Volume, in January, 1841. The Publisher has made such arrangements as to justify him in announcing to the public, that this paper shall continue to take precedence of all its Competitors as it has heretofore done and all the facilities which his Extensive Printing Establishment can afford, with the aid of his numerous Literary Correspondents, at home and abroad, shall be united to make the WEEKLY MESSENGER still more satisfactory to its thirty-five thousands of patrons distributed as it is, throughout every section of the Union. Every exertion will be used to keep equal pace with the advancement which is constantly making in the character of the Newspaper Press, and the Publisher pledges himself that his Journal shall, in all its departments, afford to its readers a full and comprehensive view of the important events, which are constantly transpiring in our own Country and the European World. The actual fact is that the Weekly Messenger is just such a Newspaper as persons living out of large Cities require, and will be pleased to receive—and the Publisher, after an association of twenty years with the Newspaper Press, pledges himself that his Journal shall not be excelled, either as respects its moral and literary reputation, or the early dissemination of news and other important and useful information. "Go-a-head" is his principle, and he has never failed to carry it out to the full extent.

The Weekly Messenger is published every Wednesday, on a beautiful white sheet, of the largest class. Single copies are forwarded to Subscribers every week during the year for two dollars, in advance—or ten persons, clubbing together, can have it for the same period by forwarding the publisher a ten dollar note, free of postage, which is less than any paper of the same size can be furnished by any other office in the United States.

A variety of beautiful engravings will be given in regular succession, which will be accompanied by appropriate Sketches, of such description as to render them particularly deserving the attention of the public.

OVER THIRTY THOUSAND.

With the immense circulation that has been achieved for the Weekly Messenger, during the four years past, since its commencement, "we are bold to say, that no paper has ever been distributed to the same number of patrons with fewer causes of complaint; in fact, we have the most cheerful and trust worthy Clerks now in our employ, and no inducements are withheld to make them attentive and systematic in the discharge of their various duties; therefore, persons subscribing for the Paper at a distance, may rely on receiving it regularly and punctually by the due course of the mail.

All the contemporary Weekly Press in the Atlantic cities lead their subscribers papers with the imposing caption "THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST!" Now, we propose that any person who cannot satisfy himself after one week's trial, that the Weekly Messenger is enthusiastically what we have said it is, and therefore is best entitled to patronage, that we will confer on every one making such discovery, a free Subscription for the space of another Year.
At the expiration of the term subscribed and paid for, by Clubs. The paper is invariably discontinued, unless the Subscribers are renewed. All letters must be Post Paid, or they will not be taken out of the Post Office.— Address,

CHARLES ALEXANDER,
Atlantic Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNI-TED STATES.

The undersigned proposes, as a future occupation, to publish, semi-monthly, a cheap newspaper, to be called KEN-DALL'S EXPOSITOR. Should the Administration be sustained in the present conflict, as his faith in the people persuades him to believe, there is still much to be done to secure the advancement and perpetuity of pure principles in our Government; and if perchance it shall be defeated, there will be more occasion for all honest efforts to prevent the mischief apprehended from the men who may come into power.

To these objects the undersigned has determined to devote the remnant of his life; and he can think of no means through which he can act so efficiently, as a newspaper cheap enough to be within the reach of every man who is able to read. Raised to labor on a farm he has never ceased to cherish the interests of those who work for a living; and, knowing them to be the most vir-tuous and deserving portion of society, one of the most cherished desires of his heart is to see them aroused to the importance of giving more of their reading, their thoughts, and their time, to the affairs of Government. Yet, not to them exclusively, but also all other men who do not seek to obtain, through the laws, advantages over their fellow men he will address himself in the proposed publication. The main objects noticed in this paper will be as follows, viz:

1. Suffrage is the basis of free government. He that cheats at elections is guilty of the worst kind of treason and should be punished as a traitor. He who gives utterance to a falsehood, for the purpose of influencing a voter, is but little better. To denounce cheating, bribery, and falsehood, when detected, and suggest effective preventives, will be a leading object of the proposed paper. In this the undersigned does not intend to be any respecter of parties; for the man who resorts to means for the accomplishment of political ends, whatever he may call himself, is no Democrat, and is an enemy to the people.

2. Abuses of privilege and corruption have made much progress in the legislative department of our Government, and have occasionally shown themselves in other departments. These as far as are known will be denounced, by whatever party they may be practised.
In every abuse of privilege, or undue exercise of power, the individual committing it strikes a blow at public virtue, the only lasting basis of free institutions.

3. The principles of modern banking and the manner in which banks and public debts operate upon the labor, trade, and property of the community are not well understood. One of the chief objects of this paper will be by facts and illustrations, to make these matters plain to all who will read and discuss the proposed remedies for existing evils.
This will involve an exposition of the nature and uses of money, together with a history of the origin, progress, and effects of paper money in Europe and America.

To these will be added a notice of all new discoveries and inventions which promise to be useful to mankind, as also facts, experiments, and improvements which may be instructive to the farmer and mechanic; a summary of news foreign and domestic, carefully compiled, constituting an accurate history of passing events; abstracts of important public documents, and miscellaneous matter selected and original instructive and entertaining. In fine the objects is to furnish a newspaper which will present to the farmer, planter, mechanic, merchant and all other readers, the true interests of those who live by the cultivation of the soil and other laborious occupations, involving the interest of all useful trade, and incite them always to regard those interests, in voting for public agents, to inculcate that honesty and truth should be the guide of every man in public as well as private life; that a sacred regard for the rights of property, as well as personal rights, is essential to the happiness of man in a state of society; that it is only through a fair ballot that we should look for the correction of existing evils, and the prevention of those we fear; and that a true democrat should never think of revolution by force until he finds himself deprived of the right of suffrage, or the voice of the majority is perseveringly effected by fraud or force at the polls.

Though, thoroughly Democratic in principle, this paper will not be made the vehicle of ordinary electioneering matter, nor will it engage in or admit mere personal controversies. It will not conceal its preferences for men or parties; but will seek to influence results only by appeals to reason, and through the instrumentality of fact and argument.

That a true Democrat ought never to despair, is the first article in the undersigned's political creed. Man is capable of indefinite improvement in knowledge and virtue.—These are the bases of Democracy. If we know that he cannot reach perfection, we also know that he may become better than he is. Hope and faith are the motives of the Christian teacher. They should be the stay and stimulus of the Democrat. With him they are strengthened by knowledge; for he reads and knows that man is advancing, and may be made to advance more rapidly, in all those acquirements which enable him to govern himself. If arrested by force or fraud to-day, he will resume his onward march to-morrow.

rom. By degrees the great mass of men are becoming acquainted with their rights and conscious of their power; that now will attempt to deceive them, and so determined, that none will care to assail by force. To aid in the improvement of men is the highest remaining ambition of the undersigned. He has seen much of the world, has had some experience in public affairs, has witnessed much human depravity, suffered some wrong and met with much discouragement exertions for the good of his country and his race; but never for a moment has he lost his faith in man's high destiny, or relaxed his determination to contribute to his advancement under all discouragements. If he shall reap no personal advantage from this course, beyond a consciousness of doing his duty, his children, his children's children, and myriads of human beings hereafter to live, may, by his example and labors, however humble and feeble be made more intelligent and more happy. At any rate, in this glorious hope he intends to labor, live, and die.

AMOS KENDALL.
Washington, Oct. 24, 1840.

SITOR.

L. JONES.
Dress, & Ornamental Painter and PRINTER.

WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Canal Dover and vicinity, that he continues to carry on the above business, on the Corner of Front and Starkey Street, second story, next door to the Building Office, where he intends to carry on all the various branches. He has also connected with the above the Paper Hanging, which he promises shall not be surpassed by any. His work shall be done in a style and manner, that will show for itself.

He also will attend to work in the count Canal Dover, June 19th, 1840.—U.S.

CABINET MAKING.

The subscriber thankful for past favors respectfully solicits a continuance of the public patronage. He is prepared to make to order all kinds of CABINET WARE, that is in common use in this country, which he warrants to be made in the best manner and of good materials, and at the most reasonable terms.
A lot of Cabinet furniture always on hand.
He is also prepared with the necessary materials for making and conveying GOTTING safely to any part of the country where he may be called to attend on the shortest notice.

WM. RICKETS.

SESSION OHIO STATESMAN.

We propose to issue the STATESMAN, doing the ensuing session of the Ohio Legislature on the following terms, viz:

TRI-WEEKLY, 2 00
SEMI-WEEKLY, 1 50
WEEKLY, 1 00

Persons subscribing, will please designate which paper it is that they desire.

The approaching session of the Ohio Legislature, will be one of more than usual interest to all parties. The Corwin administration will have developed his measures, or rather the measures of the Bankers and Abolitionists that elected him, and in whose hands he is.

When these measures are presented to the Legislature by Governor Corwin, as it is his duty by the constitution, the tug of war will commence in the Legislature; and, for the first time for years, the people will have an opportunity of seeing what the principles of whiggery really are in practice, and a fair comparison can be made between the doctrines of the two parties, touching the great interests of equal rights and constitutional government.

We shall have good reporters, and use what industry we are capable of employing on our paper, to give a correct and extensive view of all their doings; and the first curious item will be a law reducing the salaries of all the officers in the State, as promised to the people. The next will be, to raise the wages of labor; increase the price of wheat and pork; introduce the negroes fresh from Kentucky into our courts as witnesses, and into our common schools; but not into our Colleges where Bankers' children congregate. All these hard cider and corn skin movements will be recorded with care and precision, and when necessary, made into first rate Tippecanoe songs, and sung to keep the members' spirits up.

And the scheme already foot, as we are in formed, to chain down the people by a great Bank machinery, more powerful than the throne of the Russian Autocrat, will be watched with due care. Let the people read and judge for themselves.

The proceedings of Congress will also be duly given as heretofore.
S. & M. H. MEDARY.
Columbus, November 13, 1840.

mon Pleas of Tuscarawas county made at May five hundredths, thence north 47 west six 43 east nine chains and forty four hundredths, thence South 28 East six chains and sixty hund-

THE PHILADELPHIA CASKET

UNPARALLELED SUCCESS.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW VOLUME.
The great increase in the subscription list of the Casket since the first of the year, warrants the most extensive improvements on the first of July next at which time a new volume will be commenced with increased vigor. (Nothing need be said of the firm basis on which the Casket stands it being already the oldest magazine in the country.)

TYPE—EMBELLISHMENTS.
The Casket is printed with a clear and silver type, upon the finest white paper. The illustrations are not surpassed by those of any periodical at home or abroad; and beside the most valuable and interesting of colored plate illustrations has lately been added. The style of these embellishments is unequalled, and they are always accompanied with an apt sketch. No wood cuts disgrace the work; whatever appears in the Casket is of the first order of art.

LITERARY CHARACTER.
The literary character of the Casket is well known. It is widely original, of the highest order, and sustained by WRITERS OF THE FIRST RANK. Essays, Tales, Sketches and Travels, compose its prominent parts; articles while the poetry is equalled by that of no other magazine of like character. The variety for which the Casket is celebrated, shall suffer no diminution; but on the contrary, every exertion shall be made to increase its interest.

SEVERAL ROMANCES OF THE REVOL-UTION have already appeared, and others shall follow in the course of the volume, presenting when finished, a complete picture of the manner and historical account of the great battles at the time. Thus, the Casket, instead of being filled with richly scintillating matter, aims at a true depiction of human nature in every variety of position.

TIME OF PUBLICATION.
The Casket is published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscribers consequently receive it at that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities agents have been established, by which means subscribers can obtain their copies free of postage.

TERMS—Three Dollars per annum, or two copies for Five Dollars. Published by GEO. H. GRAYMAN,

FASHIONABLE TAILORING

JOSEPH W. NEWBURGH, would respectfully inform his old friends and the public in general, that he carries on the above business in all its various branches, one door East of J. I. Smith's Store, where he may at all times be found to attend to all work intrusted to him. He flatters himself it will be done as durable, neat and fashionable, as it can be done in the country, as he intends at all times to keep in his employ good competent workman, and he means to receive the Fashions as simply provided for.

To accommodate that one who is in the country, a public notice is given.

No. 1. One or two apprentices wanted immediately to learn the Tailoring business. Boys between the age of 15 and 16, would be preferred. They must be of good character, as recommendations of industry, honesty, and sobriety, will be required.
